

Free Meals Accessible Through Rocketship Nashville National School Lunch and School Breakfast Program

In Summer 2021, Rocketship Education's Nashville region was accepted to participate in the federal Community Eligibility Provision (CEP) program for the 2021-2022 school year. This program gives all students daily access to nutritionally balanced meals, providing breakfast and lunch free of charge.

Meals at Rocketship are provided by Revolution Foods. For more information, please visit Revolution Food's website at: www.revolutionfoods.com

To learn more about school meal operations, please contact Stefanie Bundy, Regional Director of Operations (sbundy@rsed.org). For information regarding Rocketship Education's National School Lunch and Breakfast Program, please contact Kelly Giampaoli, Compliance Associate (kgiampaoli@rsed.org).

In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-3027) found online at: http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html, and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:
